

Jesus Please Heal My Body

Why am I here on this earth? Well, only to testify of the greatness of Jesus Christ! And, when I testify of Jesus Christ, he speaks well of me, to his Father, the Heavenly Father, and all things are established. Everything on the earth is made from the earth, some part of it! We are here on this earth to do the will of Jesus! And to help others, believe more in Jesus. What has this world done to me? I praise your Holy Name Jesus, please heal my body! I am your humble servant, and I need to be healed! Why wouldn't Jesus Heal me? I believe that Jesus Loves me, because I testify of him, so then why wouldn't he heal me? I don't understand! Jesus is the only perfect person! We take care of our family, but never seem to teach each other about Jesus! Why is that? Jesus is a good subject to talk about! We are all too caught up with the cares of this world, and the deceitfulness of riches, to care about the Jesus subject! Why is this? I guess it's our choice. Why avoid the Jesus Subject? It's my favorite topic! Jesus Heals my body! I believe that he created Adam & Eve, and they were perfectly created without any illness. I have grown sick, because of my sin. But Jesus, knows everything that is wrong with me, I put my trust in him to heal me, because he knows how to! Yes, I am here on this Earth to testify of the greatness of Jesus! That is my purpose for being here! Speak well of Jesus, and of God! For if we love Money, more than God, then we are sick, and revolt against God! But, God will not Honor us, if we revolt against him. And it is good, to be Honored by God. For if God be for us, who can be against us? Jesus Help me, keep me well Jesus! I am your friend Jesus, and you are a better friend to me. You love me Jesus, better than I have loved you! Help me Jesus, to Love God with my whole Heart! For I have loved other things, more than I have Loved God! Jesus you suffered my death on the cross on Calvary, please end my pain! We should all Learn to be obedient to Jesus! This will help us! If God be for us, who is able to be against us? The answer is no one! For God is greater than anyone, God is greater than all life on the earth. Do not provoke God to wrath! Be friends with Jesus, not the Devil! The choice is ours to make!
