

please do not offer me anything on this earth. Why do you try a person, and try to force them to leave their home, it is only to force a person to take what belongs to another person. Do not worry about any physical abilities, for I do not have any physical abilities. Being helpless is my only virtue. Jesus is an angel which can not be changed by anything. Jesus knows how to care for the earth, because he is perfect spiritually, and can not be changed. No one needs to help Jesus, because Jesus is perfect spiritually, can not be changed by anyone, or anything, that is why the devil and his people, do not like Jesus and his people, for the devil do not like strong angels, for they like to control other life, but strong angels can not be changed by anything, and are unmovable, and put the devil and his people, in great pain, because of their love of evil, for they love evil very greatly, and when confronted by an angel, from Jesus, they do not like it, because, angels from Jesus are more challenging to fight against, because you like controlling other life, but when an angel from Jesus, is staring you in the face, and you can not do anything about it, you become in great pain, because the spirit of Jesus is the best, and is perfect in life, unchangeable by anything, they they to tell Jesus what he should do, because of their great pain, because of their love to rule the earth and love, to destroy the human race, for they love to control life on the earth, but when confronted by angels from Jesus, they can not change anything, but they do not like being in that much pain, and try to find ways to destroy angels from Jesus, but stronger and stronger angels from Jesus can appear anywhere they want to be, and do not need to be told where to be, but can be anywhere that they like to be. For the devil and his people, do not like Jesus, and what he has created, and harm his people, because they do not like what Jesus has created, because they have no rulership over Jesus, and it bothers them to be surrounded by stronger angels from Jesus, because of their great sin, for no one send angels, or tells them where to be, but imperfect angels can be defeated, but stronger and stronger angels, can be sent to you by Jesus, for Jesus is the ruler of his angels. but the love of the earth, is the love of the devil, proportionately accordantly to a persons hearts desire, Jesus is the Judge of everyone hearts desire. Jesus is king of kings, and lord of lords, is the rulers of every satan that has been born, and every earth that has ever existed, for Jesus can Judge any sin he like to Judge. Jesus makes a better devil, a devil which is less evil is a better devil, to rule the earth, a devil which spiritually lives inside of you harming you from inside of your body, but you do not like a small devil inside of you harming you, from inside of your body, then having you to depend on him from within, inside of you body, because I love to harm other, people, and when the devil, is a little boy, inside of my body playing games, with what I hear, see, and say, I go insane, because the devil lives inside of me controlling everything I experience, and I go insane, because everything changes, from within, and because of my great love of the earth, it is good to go insane, then I be less harmful to other life, and it is good to be less harmful to other life, by I do not like a little boy named satan living inside of my body making me insane wherever I go, but it good to be insane. What are angels made of, holy spirit, from Jesus. For the devil promises you anything, that he can think of, because of his great fear of no longer being the ruler of the earth, and he does not like loosing his ruler ship of the earth, for that is what he likes the most ruling the planet earth, but he is too evil to do a good Job, of ruling the planet earth, but a little boy, named satan, can rule the earth a whole lot better than an adult can rule the earth, because he is better in life, being less evil, saying that does not matter what he does from within you, because he is living inside of your body helping you to improve in life because you need help improving in life, so he lives inside of your body playing games with you, and is better at playing games then you are and being less evil he still has the ability to fly, because he is spiritually stronger than you are, because he trusts more, in Jesus than you do, and Jesus helps him more in Life, to be more intelligent, for Jesus is the best teacher of life, Jesus is the perfect teacher of life, and anyone that likes Jesus teaching them about life, has a better life to live. What can Jesus do, everything! What can you do nothing! Whatever Jesus created is stronger in life. But the devil lives in your home, and invites other evil life to live in your home. for no physical ability can protect you, and weapons only harm the person who would consider using them. And their is no weapon that can be used to defeat Jesus, Jesus is not harmed by anything, being the rulers over every life. For no one can protect themselves by anything made from the earth, but are protected only by higher spiritual powers, than whoever would harm them.
