

It is good to have Satan as a little boy, living inside your body, harming you from inside of your body, in small ways, then telling you from inside your body, to trust in Jesus to save you. Thus people will be harmed from inside of their body, by a devil boy which likes to harm you from within inside of your body, then telling you that it doesn't matter that he harmed you from inside of your body, living inside of you, then having you trust in Jesus, to save you. This is a better Satan to live inside of you, playing games harming you from inside of your body, then having you trust in Jesus to save you. After a while you will trust in Jesus more and more to help you stay well. For it makes no difference, what harm is done to you, because Jesus will save you. Where is Jesus, everywhere in existence. This would be a better Satan to rule this world, for the world would trust in Jesus To save them. For you do not eat Satan as a little boy, but he is spiritually living inside of your body, harming you from inside of your body, changing what you see, and hear from inside of your body, every time you do something wrong, then helping you trust in Jesus to save you. For Jesus can save you from anything, for he is greater than all sin. For satan as a little boy enjoyed playing small games to harm you, telling you that it doesn't matter, for it doesn't, for he is a little boy who enjoys playing games all day long, and it doesn't matter what environment he is living in, but enjoyed playing games all day long, that is all he likes to do, play games that harm you in small way. That way every one trusts in Jesus to help them, and they go to no one else to save them. That way Satan is inside of you playing games everywhere you go making you see what he wants you see, and hear what he wants to hear, you wont know what you are seeing or Hearing, having your sight and hearing changed by inside of your body. You could look at someone and see something else, satan loves to play games. Children like to play fun and not serious games, and it's a joke for them playing games from inside of you. Zapping what you hear and see, and what you own, helping you to depend on Jesus for help. For Jesus can change what you own into something else. that way you are too busy being harmed from within, to worry about anyone else. after awhile people will avoid other people, because what they are seeing will constantly be changed from withinside of their body. they will be to busy being harmed from inside of their body, to harm anyone else. For Angels from JESUS can be anywhere in existence faster than anything, or they can be everywhere in existence all at on instance, as though they where their before time began, for they where. The main thing is Jesus knows what he is doing, and doeent need anyones help. A better earth would be an earth under his Care, or a small satan boy ruleing the earth. For children have more fun and games, and do not care about anything, as children do not care about sex, and this is not important to them all they do is play games with you, and their games are more fun and amusing, children rule the world, and adults try to harm them. It is good to say that a person does not know what is Spiritually going on, for no one knows perfectly what is Spiritually going on by save Jesus alone, for Jesus is perfect spiritually, and knows everything, and Jesus is spiritually everywhere in existence before the begging of time, before satan was created, Jesus existed. Trust in Jesus to handle everything, for he can Handle anything. For the world is small, and under the rulership of Jesus. Jesus can be in mid air staring you in the face as though he was their before anyone was born. What if satan looses an earth to rule??????
