

A prophet of the Lord Jesus speaks the word's that Jesus would tell to him, not his own word's or word's to please the people, but the word's that Jesus would talk to him with. Thus the word's of a true prophet, are true, and come to pass. An olive tree which get's it's strength from the Lord Jesus, stay's well an endures the test of time. But, a tree which the Heavenly Father did not plant, withers and dies in due time. Does an olive tree covet another olive tree and desire it's life? But of course, the Lord of the vineyard, Jesus, can grow 100 new tree's, without help from any person.

Mat 7:17 Even so every good tree bringeth forth good fruit; but a corrupt tree bringeth forth evil fruit.

Mat 7:18 A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit.

Mat 7:19 Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire.

Mat 7:20 Wherefore by their fruits ye shall know them.

Jesus is the good soil in which to plant a tree, but you can also plant a seed, and in good soil it will grow and flourish.

exodos 20:17 Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's house, thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's wife, nor his manservant, nor his maidservant, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor any thing that is thy neighbor's.

For if we covet what belongs to another, then we break the commandment of God, and thus become un-happy.

Psalm 104:1 Bless the LORD, O my soul. O LORD my God, thou art very great; thou art clothed with honor and majesty.

Psalm 104:2 Who coverest thyself with light as with a garment: who stretchest out the heavens like a curtain:

Psalm 104:3 Who layeth the beams of his chambers in the waters: who maketh the clouds his chariot: who walketh upon the wings of the wind:

Psalm 104:4 Who maketh his angels spirits; his ministers a flaming fire:
