

HERE'S THE STORY :

Back in the beginning of time, Adam & Eve were in the Garden of Eden. They had the perfect life. Had everything that anyone would like. They would have lived forever, because they knew no sin. Unfortunately, they had a free will, and God had told them not to eat from the Tree of Knowledge of Good & Evil. However, they committed the first sin. They ate of it. As a result from this, they were punished. They were forced out of the garden, and not allowed to return. For the rest of their life, they had to scratch at the dirt, to stay alive. And, one day they would now die, because of their sin. Because, the wages of sin is death.

So, my advice is, make a list of your shortcomings, bad habits, and sinful activities.

Strive to repent from these activities, until one by one, you no longer partake of these happenings.

After a period of time, your life should slowly begin to get better & better, as you become closer to God, and he likes the kind of person that you have chosen to be.

For if we love God, then we will be obedient to keeping his commandments, and not let ourselves do anything wrong, or that is not his will.
