

Mat 10:24 The disciple is not above his master, nor the servant above his lord.

A humble servant is a great person. Not great in his own sight, but great in the sight of Jesus. For Jesus is the Servant of everyone, and no one serves Jesus! For I wish not to be served, but rather to serve others. For by serving others, I stay well in life. I do not wish to be my own boss, but rather, the employee to everyone else, doing what the other person would like for me to do, so long as Jesus approves of what I am doing. A good servant, is a person who has little ambition to be great, and does not want much for him/her self. But only wishes to please his/her master, by doing what seems good to bless the master, and/or his home. A good servant does not need much provision for themselves, but is rather a valuable asset to whomever he/she blesses. Working hard all day long, taking care of the master's home, and/or caring directly for the master. A good servant, does not seek self gain, but is content being a servant unto the master's house. A good servant does not say that he/she is great and can do many things for his/her master, but rather say's nothing, and does the work needed, to the best of his/her ability. A good servant does not covet his master's house, but only takes care of what he has. The master of the home, provides what his servant desires, and hopefully the servant is not too greedy, in asking for too much. Not that the master, can not provide for his servant, but being too greedy, is yet another problem for the servant to live with. Thus servant's desire to work for their master, because they are provided for by their master, with what the master has in his household. Thus the servant blesses the master, and the master thus blesses the servant's with material provision's. A servant can not have a life for himself, while he is being a servant, for if this were true, the servant would start to be less of a servant, and more a master. Yet, do you want to be a servant, or do you desire to be the master? For there is a choice in life, some want this, some want that. And, it is up to the individual to decide what they want for their life, and what game plan they choose to follow. For Jesus has the best game plan to follow, and he has never lost a game that was played! Jesus is the expert on life, and he get's all of his help trusting in God for everything. For I myself am a sinner, and have lost many of the games played, but, the good news is that I can trust in Jesus, to redeem me from all of my lost games, that were played, for, Jesus has not lost yet! And, Jesus, will never loose a game, being the king of Heaven & Earth, perfect spiritually, above all of us! For we all try to control our lives, control other lives, but, everything is a sin, we being sinners...So it is best to just let Jesus play the games for us, and not be involved in playing the games, because we can not win. Jesus is just all right...Perfect! Jesus is the servant of everyone, and, a person can serve Jesus, but the only service that we can do, is to lead people into the hands of Jesus, and let Jesus help that person. For I myself can not help anyone, being a wretched sinner myself, but, Jesus is without sin, and can heal a person from their sin, so just let Jesus do his Job, for he is the only one qualified to handle the Job of salvation. Jesus, Jesus, Jesus, I call on the name of Jesus to help me with my life. He is the only true person that helps me....
